México

Main Cities: Mexico City (pop. 20.45M, the capital), Guadalajara (pop. 4.53M), Monterrey (pop. 4.21M), Tijuana (pop. 1.82M).

Population: 120 Million
78% in urban areas

Education: 2.7M College students, 38% in engineering.
5,017 Universities
4.6M Students in high schools

GDP Nominal: 1.26 Trillion USD (2013)
GNI per capita: 16,110 USD, PPP (2013)

Infrastructure:

90,858 miles of paved roads.
9,320 miles of 4-lane highways.

64 International airports that offer 282,012 flights annually.

13,076 Bank branches
40,450 ATMs

47.2M Internet users

100.7M Mobile telephone users

US-Mexico bilateral trade reaches $506B USD annually. There are 28 border crossing points along the border in which Nuevo Laredo accounts for 34% of the total trade, Juarez 13%, Nogales 6%, and Reynosa 5%.

20.2M fixed telephone lines

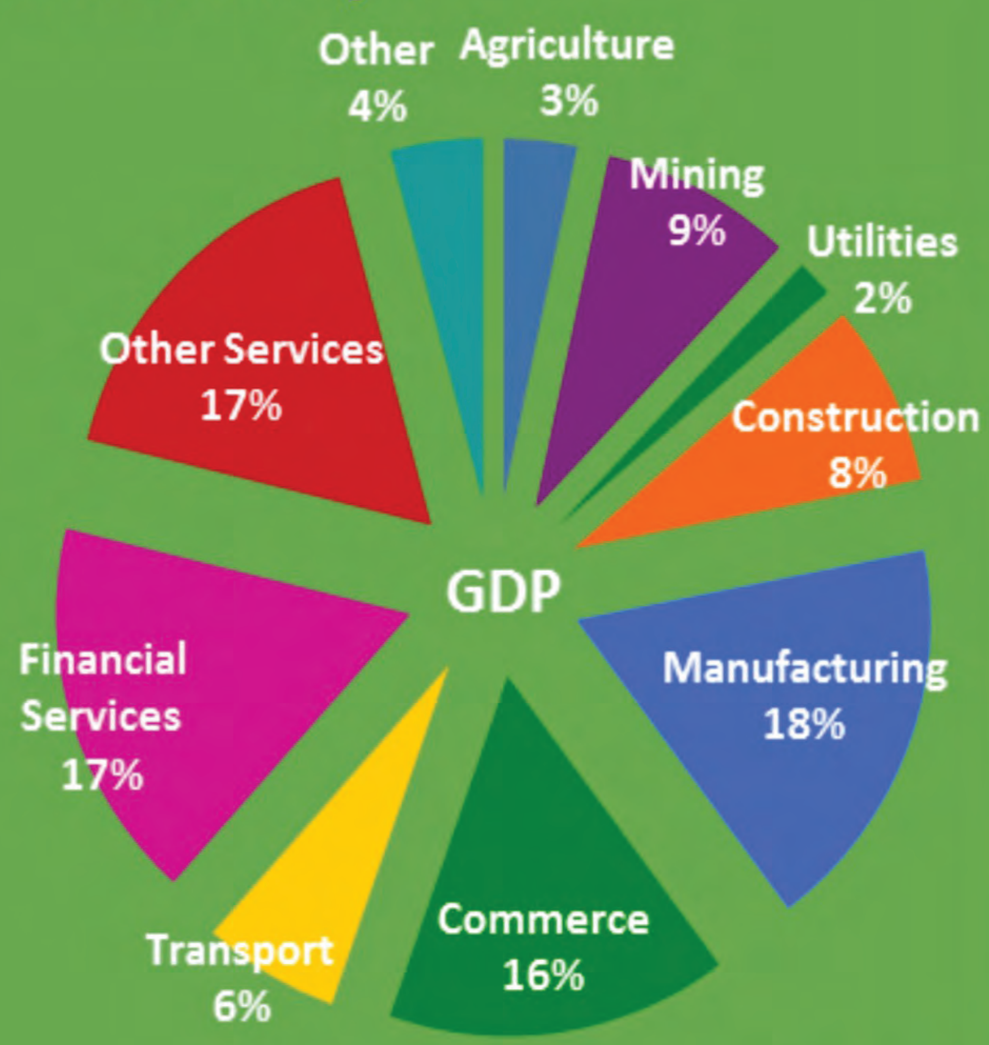
16,607 miles of railroad

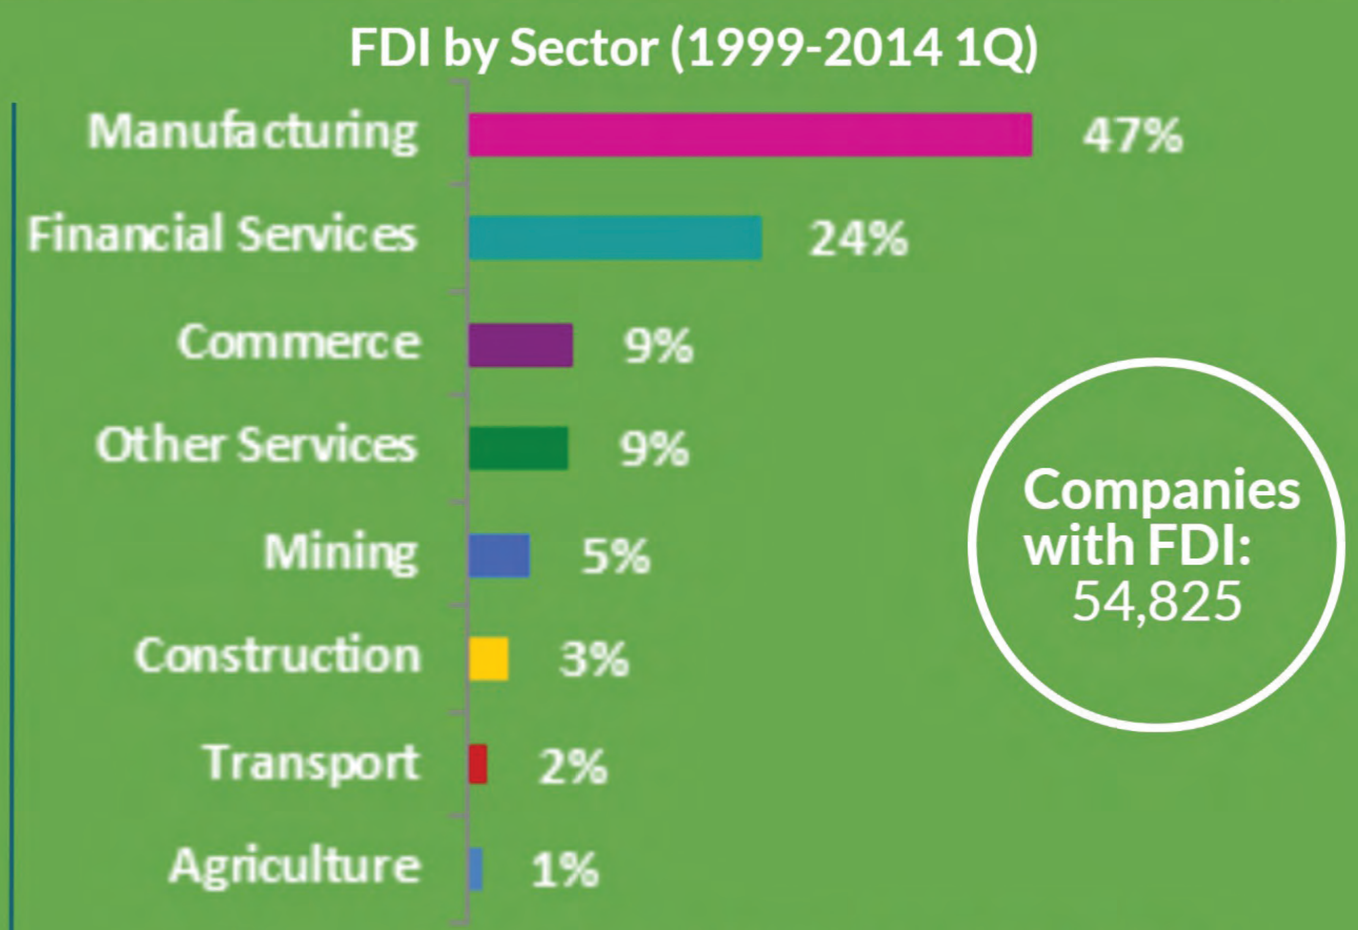
13M Cable TV subscribers

152,776 truck companies
715,683 trucks total

40 Commercial ports. Lázaro Cárdenas handles 32.8M tons, Manzanillo 27.7M tons, Veracruz 21.8M tons, and Altamira 15.3M tons.

Economy:





FDI: $368.2 billion USD (1999-2014 1Q)

Exports: $380.1 billion USD (2013)

Imports: $381.2 billion USD (2013)

Key Economic Sectors: automotive, electronics, electrical equipment & appliances, oil & petrochemicals, processed food, beverages, fresh produce, metallurgy, non metallic manufacturing products, tourism.

Major exports: Oil, vehicles, TV sets, auto parts, trucks, cables, computers, communication equipment, medical devices, refrigerators, generators, clothes, beer and produce.

Visit: www.naftamexico.net

Follow us: @MxUSTrade

SE
SECRETARÍA DE ECONOMÍA

NAFTA Works

Sources: SE, SCT, INEGI, CIA World Factbook, World Bank, NAFTA Office, ProMexico